MvVO ART Hosts Invitation-Only Collector Circle at Phillips Ahead of Photographs Auction

MvVO ART continues its invitation-only Collector Circle Series with a private salon on Tuesday, April 8, 2026, at Phillips in New York, bringing together collectors, aspiring collectors, and cultural leaders for an intimate evening of art, connection, and discovery.

Held in advance of Phillips' Photographs Auction on April 11, the gathering offers a unique opportunity to experience the auction environment while engaging directly with a curated selection of MvVO ART artists.

As part of the Collector Circle series, MvVO ART brings guests into special art environments—from private collector homes to leading institutions such as Phillips—with each gathering aligned to key moments in the art market calendar. The series launched at Phillips on March 3 with a contemporary focus and continues here with a focus on photography.

As part of this initiative, Phillips serves as host and educational partner, welcoming guests to its New York galleries throughout 2026 in coordination with its auction calendar. Phillips specialists share expertise on collecting, guide guests through highlights of upcoming exhibitions, and offer behind-the-scenes insight into the auction process.

Featured Artists

The evening will present works by three MvVO ART artists:

- Paul Woolmington

- Deb Fong

Her work explores identity and transformation through layered, emotionally resonant imagery.

- Nathalie De Zan

She draws on fashion and cultural references to create refined, narrative-driven compositions.

Selected works for sale will be available to view on Artsy:
