MvVO ART is bringing its invitation-only MvVO ART Collector Circle to Tokyo, following its recent successful debut in New York. The Collector Circle is designed to connect through art — bringing together established collectors and rising next-generation collectors to learn from one another, meet artists, and discover emerging talent early within intimate, art-filled environments.

Tokyo was selected because of MvVO ART's deep relationships in Japan, built over years through the many Japanese artists who have participated in AD ART SHOW, the organization's flagship platform for emerging talent. The Tokyo edition honors these longstanding ties and continues the Japan – U.S. cultural dialogue through art.

Exhibition: Takamitsu Sakamoto — Trace of Grace — A Flower Forever in Bloom

Presented at the Dai-10 FMG Building in Shibuya/Tokyo on Thursday, December 4th, 2025 the exhibition features Japanese artist Takamitsu Sakamoto, who has exhibited with MvVO

ART since the launch of AD ART SHOW at Sotheby's in 2018. His Trace of Grace philosophy explores beauty as it shifts from form into feeling — “a flower forever in bloom” that continues in the heart long after the visible fades. Sakamoto sees photography as “a vessel that lifts the unseen,” capturing the threshold between presence and absence.

The exhibition also includes contributions from eight Japanese artists — calligraphy, scent, florals, jewelry, illustration, literature, and aerial photography — each enriching the atmosphere while keeping the spotlight on Sakamoto's solo work.

Commenting on the new exhibition, Maria van Vlodrop, Founder & CEO, MvVO ART said, “We are pleased to bring the MvVO ART Collector Circle to Japan with Takamitsu Sakamoto. His work and the fantastic network of artists and supporters around him reflect the cultural richness we feel honored to engage with.”

Artist Takamitsu Sakamoto said of the exhibition, “For me, art is what remains in the heart after seeing, and I'm grateful to present this work in Tokyo with MvVO ART and the fellow Japanese artists whose perspectives enrich this moment.”

The exhibition artworks works by Takamitsu Sakamoto will be available on Artsy: <https://www.artsy.net/show/mvvo-art-takamitsu-sakamoto-solo-exhibition-trace-of-grace-flowers-will-bloom-forever>
